VOL XV. SERIES: NO. 51.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, JANUARY, 31, 1896.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Journalism and "the Right to Privacy" Continued.

intensity and intense in their littleness. The very essence of purity safety and liberty under government at least under popular government, is the publicity of it. Of old the cry was, "How shall they hear without a preacher !" Now the question is "How shall they learn without a newspaper !" The newspaper discharges the functions once delegated market place, the city gates and the within our federal system of an arti- the head of the order, she held sway over ficiaries senatorial right of consent the great religious orders, and they will

forced or depleted according to how the matter is looked at by about forty appoint or remove ecclesiastics from office or fifty unelected assistant presidents jurisdiction as the spirit moved them, and incidents of an endeavor to overthrow | Pope Clement VII issued a papal bull this abuse, to level this pretension to which endowed the abbess of Fontevrault culminated in the assassination of a his vicar generals. - Woman's Journal. chief magistrate by an incensed adherent to the spoils system which has its roots in the privacy or secrecy of government by an unreported oligarchy Every endeavor of the press to get at the proceedings in executive session on confirmations or rejections of nomest and has met with the public apof the right to privacy or secrecy in government is one which the press of the country is vigorously striking. is a blow for the people, and for responsible and accountable governwere to be, and foresaw to the heart law but without newspapers. The privacy in government at Washing ton, in Albany and in every state it could easily be overdone.

Secrecy or privacy in a department of government has made divorce a frequent outrage on the innocent. It about it, and without the judges themselves ever knowing anything about it. A syndicate of scoundrels had forged the seal of the courts and the signatures of the judges and of the court and county clerks. Thousands of children were ineffaceably ing dishes that makes that miscalled branded. The press exposure of the crime stopped it there; but there was no punishment of the scoundre's because they escaped. Secret adjudications of issues at law should not be tolerated. Collusion, conspirsey, perjury, false personation and the exquisite injury of innoceace are ng,

aid

journalists as much as journalists ournalism. Prescribe for the reader and you will sure the newspaper.

PRESS AND PEOPLE parted to them. Supersede tattle the useful. Subordinate gossip about the frivolous to news about earnest folk When society really of The Brooklyn Eagle, before the Woman elects and determines to foster its own privacy and not to fling its occa-

And it always comes with years.

-Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Business Women In Convents M. Legouve makes the statement that, although the convents were always rereality never enjoyed greater freedom than only in those surroundings could they show their capabilities. The marriage which the feudal system brought with it proved to be a veritable jail and meant inellectual death to a large hearted woman shape her existence to suit herself and find tablish regulations, to travel, to institute spiritual and temporal power. They could in the districts which came under their the monks and all the religious orders.

Mr. Percival Chubb, who certainly poetry for the young abound. They are have a tendency to lessen the taste of the with the heavier and more strengthening ended that there as great danger of makflowery, as the things the child struggled over were the things he remembered. Even the illuminating knowledge came sudpress is the opponent of the evils of denly, and the framework was ready for it. of profit. While indorsing most heartily, in the main, the kindergarten system, he thought only be nice in their manner of looking up does not intend to buy it, should be handled as carefully as the petals of a rose.

It is nicety in clearing a table that

To arrange a comfortable and effective lounging corner get a narrow cot, which may be bought at any furniture store for soft mattress or an improvised covering of thick quilts or shawls. Then cover it completely with one of the rich colored Bagdad draperles in which oriental establishments abound and complete the arrangements would reduce or turn into better channels, but its readers affect the coloring may be made of linen, then a matter for channels, but its readers affect the coloring may be made of linen, and in the coloring of the color in thick quilts or shawls. Then cover it completes color to directly in your eyes and the predominant color discerned therein will be the color to directly in your eyes and the predominant color discerned therein will be the color to directly in your eyes and the predominant color discerned therein will be the color to directly in your eyes and the predominant color discerned therein will be the color to directly in your eyes and the predominant color discerned therein will be the color to directly in your eyes and the predominant color discerned therein will be the color to directly in your eyes and the predominant color discerned therein will be the color to directly in your eyes and the predominant color discerned therein will be the color to choose for a gown, irrespective of hair or complexion, when you wish to look most be witchingly and becomingly arrayed. In pullows as one's resources admit. Pretty pillow coverings may be made of linen, in the back part of the store them. In the back part of the store them.

OUR TROLLEYS.

Municipal Ownership Seems to Their Manifest Destiny. BY PROFESSOR FRANK PARSONS.

Those who are acquainted with th facts have long recognized the imsurance, depreciation, and all) is less than fourteen cents per car-mile. The receipts per car-mile average 35 to 50 cents in Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and New York. Wherefore, two fifths of the present fares would be anticipated to may the total cost of ransportation, including depreciation and 6 per cent interest on the actual investment. To put it in auelectric car under Philadelphia conditions is $10.00 to $12.00 a day, and fixed charges not over $2.50 to $3.00. while the receipts will average about $40.00 per day for each car in operation. If fares were 2 cents, instead of 5, the receipts would be two-fifths of $40 00 por day, or $16, which would more than cover the entire would allow a wide margin for profit viz., 331 per cent of the gross receipts. Your and the reports of numerous trolley companies in the United States.

So far, we have supposed the traffic

o remain the same as at present, but in truth the number of passengers would be largely increased by reduc- And tion of fares. In Savannah, Ga., communication through the mediation of fares were reduced last year to one cent, and the traffic grew so greatly that the receipts were increased in- As yo stead of diminished, and a good profit knows whereof he speaks, thinks it is a was realized even at that low rate Expenses do not increase in proporcar empty. The West End Street Railway Company of Boston carried 200,000 more passengers this year than last, and added a million dollars he was an extremely careful and to its revenue thereby, but the increased cost of transportation was only $188,000-less than a cent per only $188,000—less than a cent per footrest when he discovered that his passenger. It is a practical certainty that if fares in Philadelphia went other man would have taken out his condition to breakfast, after which they protected that his pencil needed sharpening. Any other man would have taken out his condition to breakfast, after which they protected that his pencil needed sharpening. down to 3 cents, the increase of busi- knife and begun work at once, but age cost per passenger that 50 per cent of the gross receipts would be and went across the room for a litprofit, and there is every probability tle waste paper basket that was that a 2 cent fare would still leave 30 standing in the corner. Then he reper cent of all receipts in the column turned to his seat in the easy chair The usual objection to public own- His wife smiled approvingly, and ership is that it would put the roads he felt proud of himself. in politics and cause administrative He opened his knife, leaned over his basket and began work on the abuses. It is difficult to see how the roads could be more in politics than pencil. they are now. The fire department, and thoughtful," he said as he defor calling things nice irrespective of they are now. The fire department, and thoughtful," he said as he detheir size, prominence, splendor or obsources. "That's nice," "That isn't streets parks etc. are probably not end of the pencil. streets, parks, etc., are probably not end of the pencil. may have used the word nice too fre- angelic but the abuses chargeable to "It is," replied his wife as she folquently, but as yet nicety in doing things is not too apparent. One definition of nice them are but the dust in the balance locality were astounded to learn that is "delicate handling or treatment." to the corruptions and abuses that on the carpet behind him. Now, if people who go in bookstores or take books up from bookstands would take books up from bookstands would but no bookstands would be the private railways. It is not beauty that counts so much as style and carriage. But why continue? There are few that counts so much as style and carriage. In particular you want girls who walk substance the more perfect the ink. not public but private monopolies who have not tried to sharpen a pen only be nice in their manner of looking at books, it would do them credit and make booksellers their debtors. The manipority of people do not treat books nicely. They bend back the covers sometimes with a jerk, getting the book out of shape world. Even if the objection were with a jerk, getting the book out of shape at the first touch. The leaves of a new book, especially if the one who takes it book, especially if the one who takes it up does not intend to buy it, should be tracks and lease them under a good pens. - Chicago Post. contract with strong reservations of ing dishes that makes that miscalled mental occupation an art. There is an art in handling a book, and it is only nice people who understand it. If we city by accepting the offer of capital can't say nice, we can get our innings by ists who are willing to take such a lady said, when one of his composition of the said of another girl, and so has her own grace alone on which to depend nice.—Philadelphia Press. of the guests:

The progress of civilization has "How did you like the rendering dinary beauty of face." a few dollars, reduce its height to about 18 largely consisted in transforming inches from the floor and lay upon it a soft mattress or an improvised covering of thick guilts or showle. The cotton, silk, velvet or any available matches the government, a universal co operation of the government o terial, and a sense of harmony in color is all that is needed to make the couch and tion managed by the public for the I asked the clerk whether he proits coverings an effective bit of furnishing. benefit of the public. The same is nounced the "ine" like the "ine" in Amelia Barr says, "The woman who true of justice, health, education, "Oh, no, we do not pronounce it understands the art of talking possesses a safety from fire, transmission of in at all," was the smart answer. "We employed in factories, these estab-wider co-operation is a progress, because it is a step toward a fuller harmony of interests and a better diffusion of benefit. So long as the roads are controlled by men whose business and their companies, so long will the Silk, and Her Rusband Has to Take Her press which is unjust. Disraeli the public, then the relation of journing and the public, then the relation of journing and the people of our cities from municipated the public be subording.

Name—The Men Fish and Do the Hard works, but the Women Direct Affairs.

AT PARTING.

Bo, with a last goodby,

To us, as we to you:

Parting is dying, too,

In this gray hour you die

Tomorrow we shall say,

His quiet room up stairs,

The lonely look it wears:

With want of only him.'

Your help in that or this,

You will bear with you thus

Just as if you, at last, That greater sea had passed Whose winds and waters years

Even death is nothing more

Thus ever, near or far,

Yet those we bid goodby Find death is not to die, departing from our daily strife. Go hence from life to life.

Clasp hands, and now farewell!

The word's a passing knell.
But ripening year by year,
Life triumphs there as here,
ark nor silent would the distance be

He was a careful and thoughtful he was too thoughtful for that, also and placed the basket on the floor

"It is just as easy to be careful of your song, professor?"

between his legs.

He sighed, got up out of his chair

Than opening of a door Through which men pass away

As stars into the day, 'e, who see it not, blinded by the light, Cry, "They are lost in night!"

Our thoughts reflect today

the house seems desolate and dim abundance of eggs and garden stuff. represented one of the ten "varangis" emale sections of the island. t appears that the ladies are organized stely from the men, whose sections, nine in number, are termed "attiris."

Hallowed because your hand Has touched them! We shall miss And treasure even trivial words you said As memories of the dead. Remembrances of us;
And, writing now and then
Of stranger lands and men, lings from afer shall reach us be
As from another sphere.

Outward and never turn, oking through the waste of silence lone You called from the unknown.

women to perpetuate the family name and the public services require it. meeting house. Visiting one of these, the courist found a party of silk clad women

Montana has only 2,696 persons Things are increased in attraction if most useful and enjoyable accomplish-the personal equation can be im-ment, for talking is one of the best of all no sooner departed than another bevy hed, also bearing fruit. And so would be positively buried alive under gine." says the tourist, "a state o

Each section, moreover, has its own neeting house. Visiting one of these, the yarn. Getting into conversation with the head woman, he learned something about their daily life. At 5:30 in the morning, He was resting comfortably in his easy chair with his feet resting on a before returning to their domestic duties.

> Each attiri has also its meeting house. Here the men congregate to do the work tombstones. Their tombstones, by the way, are very fanciful. They are about a foot high, rounded on top for females and square for males. During eight months ceeds that of the male population by about 20 per cent. Boys under 7 are under the jurisdiction of the head women, but having passed that age they go over to the attiris. method; if in the wrong, we can not ised results there is no reason not

STORIES OF EUGENE FIELD.

WOMAN IS BOSS ON THE PINHEAD ISLAND OF MINICOY.

, and in doing so you will have taken

Meantime the men are engaged in fishing. On the return of the boats the women repair to the shore to secure their household share of the day's catch. Then, the best test of gait I know of. I've watched bridal processions often, and I've seen girls radiantly pretty lose all the effect of their good looks by their hobbling walk. Try to move the feet forward very slowly and see how easily it becomes a limping hitch. It should be a glide; then the slowness is stately. The bride herself is helped by her long train, her drooping head and the leaning on her father's arm before and her husband's after the cere-mony, but the bridesmaid wears a short gown, must look on a level, walks up and Walnut St. Crossing, N Y & G L Ry ists who are willing to take such a lady said, when one of his compositions had just been rendered by one free transfers.

In the recently a lady said, when one of his compositions had just been rendered by one of the guests:

In the recently a lady said, whose head is well set on her shoulders and whose hair transfers.

"Vas dot my song?" replied the "Vas dot my song?" replied the professor. "I vas not know him, "— new idea. Let the bright sunlight shine tints are purchasable, and with the prom- left at telegraph office at D. L. & W. R. E.

press which is unjust. Disrail the public, then the relation of journ in the people of our cities from mynicing in Tothair defined critics to be men who had failed to mer who had failed to men and each who had failed to mer who had failed to and the result was simply over whelming. At last Field broke the silence, looking at his employer, who

"Do you think you can see your way, Mr. Stone, to raising my sal-

Needless to say he got the raise. Field's eccentricity showed itself in the books he purchased, many of which had no possible bearing upon his work and indeed had small in trinsic value. "My library." be used to say, "is full of fool books," For example, he had hundreds of

of execrable verse produced by a poet in Peoria or Coldwater or any other insignificant place, and these he would range proudly with the pages "just to see how bad they He said that things had to

One of the queer things he did at The News office was the establishing of what he called the "Field me morial window," really a portion of a glass door over which he had an artist draw a cherub with the orthodox wings attached to his own head and face. Under this cherub's head he took delight in pasting all the disagreeable clippings be could gath er from newspapers and periodicals many a quiet chuckle Field would or facetious remarks about them. Handeled Nappies, from Field never cared how much fun Olive Dishes, from first to applaud when the laugh was at his own expense. - New York Sun. Berry Bowels, from plaining, "I was brought up with-hope to progress.-Coleridge.

Some chemists affirm that the Watches, ly of gallate of iron and that the Diamonds.

Stringles, Turned Posts, Pickets, Etc.

Just what Bloomfield and Montclair have

S n's, Moutclair, N. J., will receive, prump

H. POSTER & CO. Besidence, Soho, N. J.

Materials for Art Needlework at BLOOMFIELD & STEPHENSON'S.

294 Glenwood Ave.

ACKERMAN.

Plumber, Steam and Gas Fitte

SEWER CONNECTIONS. 316 GLENWOOD AVE.,

Near the Centre, BLOOMFIELD.

PORTABLE AND BRICK-SET FURNACES RANGES, Etc.

Tin, Copper and Sheet Iron Work

Jobbing promptly attended to. Estimates chearfully was also his best friend, out of those big eyes so full of human kindness, and said:

DEALERS IN

COAL & WOOD

Yard, 361 BROAD STREET

BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

For the Best quality o * * LEHIGH COAL

THOROUGHLY SCREENED, and PROMPTLY DELIVERED

Call or Write. Orders for Coal may be left with Geo. S. Fornoff, 12 Broad Street

Wiss & Sons, Beauty Show!

755 BROAD STREET NEWARK, N. J.

RICH BARE and REFINED, d

$2,25 | Water Pitchers, from $1 85 Oil Bottles, from $3.25 Salts and Peppers, from 10.50 Celery Trays, from

$5,50 Tumblers, per half dozen

We stand pre-eminent in the Cutlery line. stock is as big as you can find anywhere. Cutlery made in our own shop. You can get here every thing you want in the cutlery line.

Sterling and Plated

We are at the top in the Jewelry business. Our Christmas trade demonstrated that.

755 BROAD STREET NEWARK, N. J.

A Fine Line of Footwear

Mens'

Ladies' Misses Children's

Manufacturer of Hand Made Boots & Shoe REPAIRING NEATLY DONE

573 Bloomfield Ave.

Bloomfield.